

Rolling Fortress

Product information

Product description

An inviting jungle trail lushes within the heart of the city. The playscape mimics the environment at a nature trail, where the residents can enjoy the perks of nature's lush greenery and a walk on the timber bridge as though it was a hiking trail within their residence.

The bridge is accommodable for both adults who enjoy immersing themselves in the serene nature while watching their kids having fun around, or little ones who enjoy overlooking the playscape with their parents as they cross the bumpy bridge.
